

Jason Pettigrew Memorial ARE Scholarship

Jason Pettigrew, Assoc. AIA, dedicated much of his time with the AIA towards the development of others and community service. He touched the lives of everyone around him through his selfless service which included leadership roles locally, with AIA Colorado, and with AIA national. His significant contributions include assisting in the formation of the NAC through service on the first NAC Executive Committee, serving multiple years as Representative to the NCARB IDP Coordinating Committee, and the development of the Emerging Professionals Companion released in 2004.

"Jason was an architecture intern's strongest advocate who created conversations for all of the profession to work as one."
-- Ana Guerra, Assoc. AIA
2004 NAC chair

In recognition of his contributions to internship and licensure, the National Associates Committee has created the Jason Pettigrew Memorial ARE Scholarship Fund.
