

IDP Outstanding Firm Awards Program

RELEASE FORM

Copyright License for Category Statements

In consideration of acceptance of the candidate firm's submission by The American Institute of Architects, Inc. ("AIA"), the candidate firm grants the AIA a perpetual worldwide non-exclusive license to use the text submitted as "category statements" in connection with the AIA's IDP Outstanding Firm Awards Program as follows:

- For publication as an AIA Best Practice and
- In connection with the announcement of any awards in different media, including on the Internet, under the awards program and the promotion of the awards program itself.

As part of its license, the AIA may quote, edit, and create derivative works of the category statements and may publish them in any format or media without further approval, without providing a copyright or credit notice, and without being required to pay royalties or make any payment.

The candidate firm represents and warrants that the category statements contain only the candidate firm's own work or the work that others have authorized the firm to use; that the candidate firm has obtained all necessary permission to use the work contained in the category statements; and that the candidate firm has the right to grant the AIA a license to use such work.
