

ArchiPAC is the AIA's only political action committee at the federal level. It is the mechanism for architects to voice the AIA's positions on issues affecting the built environment, our profession, our communities, and our practices to our elected leaders at the national level.

- ArchiPAC is a bipartisan political action committee for AIA members and staff. Contributions from individuals other than AIA members and staff cannot be accepted.
- Contributions are 100% voluntary.
- Contributions go to support candidates for office that fight for the values of the AIA and its members.
- All contributions must be from individuals; federal law prohibits corporate contributions.

Yes! I wish to support ArchiPAC, the only federal political action committee of The American Institute of Architects.

By checking this box, I confirm that the following statements are true and accurate:

- 1) I am a United States citizen or permanent resident alien.
- 2) This contribution is not made from the general treasury funds of a corporation, labor organization, or national bank.
- 3) The funds I am donating are not being provided to me by another person or entity for the purpose of making this contribution.

Contributions to ArchiPAC are not tax deductible. Federal law requires political committees to use best efforts to collect and report the name, address, employer and occupation of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year. Amounts are suggestions only. Contributions are strictly voluntary and do not affect AIA membership status. Corporate Contributions are prohibited by federal law.
