Architecture firms are more likely to have experienced an increase than a decrease in delayed, stalled, or canceled projects over the past six months.

Regional Business conditions decline at firms in all regions except the Midwest

Graphs represent data from December 2022–December 2023. A score of 50 equals no change from the previous month. Above 50 shows increase; Below 50 shows decrease. 3-month moving average.

National Architecture firm billings remain weak in December

Practice

Architecture firms are more likely to have experienced an increase than a decrease in delayed, stalled, or canceled projects over the past six months.